Dear Sir/Madam,

Season's Greetings...

Sub: - Nominations for Summer School on “Agribusiness and Marketing Information System” during 1st to 21st July 2013

Agribusiness is the transformation of traditional to contemporary approach of doing agricultural business. Farmers produced what they are good at and what they wished. But Agribusiness gives the scope to think beyond production and identify what market demands. Opportunities in Agribusiness are increasing day by day, but exploring the same profitably requires proper management of agricultural activities. India has tremendous agriculture production advantage, with second largest arable land in the world and diverse agro-climatic zones. Increase in domestic market as well as augmentation in acceptability of Indian agricultural produce in the international market gives the scope to understand and adhere the agriculture from commercial point of view.

Considering the need of time and to revitalize the existing knowledge of agribusiness, it feels me immense pleasure to inform you that International Agri-Business Management Institute, Anand Agricultural University, Anand is going to organize 21 days summer school on “Agribusiness and Marketing Information System” during 01st to 21st July 2013. The summer school is organized with an intention to refresh and upgrade the existing knowledge of agribusiness through class room sessions, case discussions, presentations, assignments, farm visits, industrial and institutional visits etc. To have a blend of experience and learning to the participants, academicians from our university and other premier institutes as well as industrial experts from various relevant fields will be invited to discuss on relevant topics of agribusiness.

I shall be grateful, if you could kindly sponsor one or two most deserving teachers and research workers of the subject who have at least two years of teaching/research/extension experience in the
