Patel followed by speeches by all the dignitaries speaking about objectives and importance of the training. The function y ended with SRC Chairman giving the vote of thanks.

DAY-I (15/02/2018)

First lecture was delivered by DR. R.S. Patel, who has a huge experience in giving lectures to students on leadership and forming goals in their life. He had this amazing way of taking lectures in which he won't just give a lecture but would involve the students as well so that everyone could learn by interacting with each other and could also help them removing their stage fears and shyness so that they can compete well when they step out in the outer space. The session moved forward with a simple game with which he put forth a few ideas to which students had to say if they agree, disagree or are neutral to the idea. This game mainly brought out the decision making skills of the students and more importantly the time in which they took the decisions.

Second lecture was delivered by Hetalbhai Pathak, who has a Masters in Social Work who taught about SWAT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats) analysis and how it could be useful in assessing each and every situation in student life.

He also played a game in which the students volunteered and made four groups. In the game the students were supposed to work together as a team and fulfil the given challenge. The game ended with a lesson that taught us how teamwork is important and what makes a good leader and what makes good team members. It was a fun way to understand something so deep and left an impact on the students teaching them how to be better in their lives.

The third session was related to field of Horticulture and delivered by Dr.I.R. Rathod taught about how farmers have been achieving great success in the field of Horticulture by changing their traditional practises and adopting the modern ones. He gave to a number of examples. The sessions of the day ended with Nishaben and Hetalbhai giving the activity of performing a role play on the given themes the next day to teach us about team work, planning and leadership along with teaching to students how to solve the farmers problems when we step out in the world to help them out and what difficulties students could be face.

DAY-II (16/02/2018)

Second day of Leadership and Entrepreneurship Training Program was started with an inspiring lecture by Shri Narayan Guruji. His experience and jolly nature kept the students engaged throughout. He taught very important things of student life with such ease without making it sound serious. One of the important things that he taught was the characters of good leader or a good teacher. He taught a leader is a person who asks shares and gives but never takes. He gave four important tasks that a teacher must perform – Pravadhan (Provision), Vivada (conversation), Vitarka (Attention), and Vitanda (Debate) with his students. Along with this he also taught us the three important tasks that an ideal student should perform – Receive, practice and improve. He taught how to stay happy in our life and stay positive. He gave 13 mantras which can take you to the Highways of Happiness.

In second session, Dr. V.M. Sonvane , talked about science and technology at student level. He talked about a psychological phenomena called the Science of Affirmation. Also called as self-affirmation.

In next session, Dr.R.S.Patel, delivered lecture with his immense experience and knowledge taught us how to behave in interviews and how to convince people. He interactedwith student directly and made everyone participate in the activities keep it light and yetmaintaining clarity and fixing those points in students head so that we never make a mistake again in such important occasions of student life.

In last session shri Hetalbhai Pathak who made plays a couple of fun games and in that process taught a few very important aspects of student life. He taught that how to work our way around our problems, how to work as a team, how to think out of the box and stand out in a crowd and how to develop self confidence.

The entire program ended with the closing ceremony again graced by the Director of Students Welfare, DR. S. H. Akbari, Principal, College of Horticulture, Dr. H.C.Patel, SRC

Chairman Dr. A.H. Barad, and faculties of College Horticulture and members of the NCCSD, Ahmedabad. All the students which had attended the program in these two days tried to shear their stage fear by giving feedback in front of the audience. Last there was distribution of certificates followed by giving the trophies of the most active group. The ceremony ended with SRC Chairman giving the vote of thanks.

General feedback given by students:

1. Increase the session time for how behave in interviews
2. Include the some lectures on personality development
3. Increase the training period from two days to one week.
