

GENDERS CHAMPIONS CLUB

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

ANAND AGRICULTURAL UNIVERSITY, GODHRA

A seminar on “Why Masculine Culture? And the Role of Young Generations” was organized on 27th January 2020
by Gender Champions Club & Dept. of Basic Engineering and Technology, CAET, AAU, Godhra

Across the world, there are more men who are active in science, technology, engineering and medicine than women. Bringing awareness among the students of B.Tech Agricultural Engineering , first and second year for the sociology behind this gender disparity was the key aim of the seminar.

The training was started by Er.Kapil Mandloi, HOD, BEAS Dept., with his opening remarks and orienting the participants towards the aim of the seminar.

Mr.Chirag Jadav, Asst. Professor of B.E.A.S department was the speaker of the session. He highlighted that why under stereotyping culture like., men are fitter than women etc., how the upcoming young generation should take the responsibility to ensure no disparity between men and women and also motivated the girl students to keep away from social awkwardness and to play a key role in all the fields of their interested. Mr.Chirag, strategically and categorically made the girls students realize how masculine culture is worrying them and how to come out from the feeling of diffidence.

In the entire session, students too interacted with the speaker and opined the need of the hour of such sessions and how this seminar benefited them.

At the end, the session was ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Mr.Sravankumar, Asst. Professor and Nodal Teacher of Gender Champions, CAET,AAU,Godhra.

ABOUT GENDER CHAMPIONS CAET, Godhra

Gender socialization of both boys and girls begins early, and it is important to initiate change processes at a young age to shape attitudes and transform behaviors. There is a need to engage with these boys and girls to challenge and shift gender norms that contribute to girls and women having less worth, opportunities and decision-making ability than boys and men. In order to promote gender equality, guaranteed by Article 15 of the Indian Constitution, need to change the mode of interaction at all levels - home, school, workplace and so on. To increase the outreach for creating an environment that fosters equal treatment, Government of India envisages engagement of Gender Champions in all schools and colleges across the country. It is a joint initiative of the Ministry of women and Child Development and Ministry of Human Resource Development.

Gender Champions club, CAET Godhra of Anand Agricultural University is also a part of implementing the broad mandate of a Gender Champion to provide an integrated and interdisciplinary approach to understanding the social and cultural constructions of gender that shape the experiences of women and men in society.
