At & Po: Kankapura, Taluka: Borsad, District: Anand, Gujarat

NSS Cell of Sheth M. C. Polytechnic in Agriculture, B. A. College of Agriculture Anand Agricultural University (AAU), Anand organized a notable National Service Scheme (NSS) special camp at Gandhi Path Ashram, Kankapura village, Borsad taluka, Anand district under the esteemed guidance of Dr. S. R. Patel, Principal & Dean, B. A. College of Agriculture, AAU, Anand and Dr. N. M. Gohel, Principal, Sheth M. C. Polytechnic in Agriculture, AAU, Anand from 23/02/2026 to 01/03/2026. Dr. Ranganathswamy Math, Programme Officer of the NSS Cell and Dr. Jalpa Dobariya Assistant Professor, SMC Polytechnic in Agriculture, played a pivotal role in spearheading the organization of the camp. A total of 35 NSS volunteers from the Polytechnic actively participated in NSS special camp. This seven-day camp, themed “Not me but you,” aimed at raising the spirit of voluntary community service among students, thereby contributing to their personality and character development as envisioned by the NSS's founding principles of “Education through Service”. Throughout the camp, different activities were conducted, including a rally on Beti bachao- beti padhao, prakrutik kheti and swachha bharat swasth bharat. They cleaned the Ashram premises, bus stop and the local primary school. They also engaged in tree planting in Ashram premises, temple and primary school. A special session on Natural farming was conducted by Shri. Maheshbhai Parmar, in which students learned preparation and methods of application of natural inputs. Street play focusing on mobile use, drug addiction, Swachhata and prakrutik kheti were performed by students. Special lecture by Dr. Vijaya Prajapati on importance of hygiene, healthy food and method of giving CPR was demonstrated. Additionally, NSS volunteers also got engaged during these days in yoga and exercise sessions, prabhatpheri, bhajan sandhya, taught students at the Primary school, sports competitions, drawing competitions and cultural programs.

The camp not only facilitated a practical learning experience but also instilled a sense of civic responsibility and teamwork among the volunteers.
