

“OBSERVANCE OF SHAHID DAY: A TRIBUTE TO THE MARTYRS” AT COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE & POLYTECHNIC IN AGRICULTURE, VASO

Shahid Day was observed on 30th January at the College of Agriculture & Polytechnic in Agriculture, Vaso, with due respect and solemnity. The programme was organized to pay tribute to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The programme commenced at 10:45 a.m., where faculty members, staff and students gathered and observed two minutes of silence in memory of the martyrs.

On this occasion, Dr. Azadchandra S. Damor, NSS Programme Officer, delivered a brief address highlighting the importance of Shahid Day and reminded the students about the supreme sacrifice of great leaders and freedom fighters for the country. Further, Dr. P. S. Panchal, emphasized the simple lifestyle of Mahatma Gandhi and explained the historical and moral importance of Sabarmati Ashram, inspiring students to adopt values of truth, discipline, and service in their lives.

The programme concluded with a message of patriotism and collective responsibility towards the nation.

PHOTOGRAPHS

