

BACA organized NSS Orientation Programme

AAU's B. A. College of Agriculture organized NSS Orientation Programme for newly admitted students of the B.Sc. (Hons.) Agriculture on 21st September 2024. During the session, NSS volunteers were sensitised about their responsibilities, gaining comprehensive insights into the history, goals, rules, regulations, and guidelines for various regular and special camp activities. Dr. Sahdev Luhar, the NSS Programme Officer, highlighted the different activities undertaken by NSS volunteers at the B.A. College of Agriculture. Dr. Y. M. Shukla, the Dean and Principal of the college, encouraged students to join NSS by emphasizing the crucial role volunteers play during natural calamities.
