

Polytechnic in Agricultural Engineering Celebrated National Youth Day and Remembered Swami Vivekananda

The Polytechnic in Agricultural Engineering, Anand Agricultural University, Dahod, celebrated National Youth Day on 12th January 2025 with enthusiasm and reverence to honor the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda. The event aimed to inspire students with his teachings and instill the values he advocated.

The program was thoughtfully organized by the NSS and SRC units of Dahod, under the leadership of Dr. F.G. Sayyad, NSS Programme Officer and SRC Chairman. Faculty members Er. M.S. Khardiwar, Er. J.B. Bhimani, Er. D.M. Paradava, Mr. H.R. Parmar, Mr. D.C. Vaghela, Mr. N.D. Pandya, and Dr. Zeal Acharya extended their valuable support to ensure the event's smooth and successful completion.

In-charge Principal Mr. S.S. Chinchorkar addressed the gathering, explaining the importance of National Youth Day, and encouraged students to embody Swami Vivekananda's message of self-reliance and service to society. He concluded his speech with Swami Vivekananda's inspiring words: "Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached."

Dr. F.G. Sayyad delivered a brief yet impactful talk on Swami Vivekananda's biography, highlighting his contributions to society and the enduring relevance of his teachings. Students actively participated in a speech session, sharing their thoughts on Swami Vivekananda's ideals and their significance in the modern era.

A Quiz Competition was conducted as part of the event, engaging students and promoting knowledge-sharing. Certificates for winners and participants were distributed during the Republic Day celebration on 26th January 2025.

A total of 60 students enthusiastically participated, making the event a memorable and meaningful celebration. The program showcased the institution's dedication to nurturing intellectual, cultural, and moral growth among its students, ensuring that the legacy of Swami Vivekananda continues to inspire generations to come.

